Society of Cosmetic Chemists Elects 2020 Executive Officers

New York, NY — The Society of Cosmetic Chemists (SCC) announced the election of the 2020 Executive Officers. The Executive Officer roles are the highest-ranking volunteer positions within the organization, responsible for representing the interests of more than 5,700 individual cosmetics and personal care industry members globally.

Effective January 1, 2020, SCC's Executive Officers are:

President Mindy Goldstein, PhD (Mindy S. Goldstein, PhD Consulting)

Vice President Liz Streland (Croda, Inc.)

Vice President-Elect Michelle Hines, PhD (Mary Kay, Inc.)

Secretary Yulia Park, PhD (Amway Corporation)

Treasurer Mark Chandler (ACT Solutions Corp.)

"I am excited to work with this group of Executive Officers on our strategic plan goals to further solidify the SCC as the premier education, networking and scientific resource in the cosmetics and personal care industry," said Erica L. O'Grady, CAE, SCC's Executive Director/CEO. "Their collective industry expertise and insights will position the organization to deliver even more value, positively impacting members and the industry as a whole," she added.

"It is an honor to represent the SCC as its 74th President," says Dr. Goldstein. "Much has changed since my first term as President in 2002, and I am excited to have the opportunity to execute strategic organizational initiatives that will enhance the member experience. Working closely with the Executive Officers and our Board, we will continue to proactively address the needs of our members in their varying roles in the cosmetics and personal care industry."
