

The SCC Madam C.J. Walker Scholarship

Generously sponsored by MARY KAY

2024 PROGRAM INFORMATION & DETAILS

The Society of Cosmetic Chemists' Madam C.J. Walker Scholarship, generously sponsored by Mary Kay, signifies SCC's support of under-represented minorities (Black/Brown/African American, Native American/American Indian/Indigenous Peoples, or Hispanic/Latin American) of any gender identity pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree in STEM disciplines related to the cosmetics and personal care industry.

Madam C.J. Walker (born Sarah Breedlove; 1867-1919) was an American entrepreneur, philanthropist, and political and social activist. She is regarded as the first female self-made millionaire in America. Walker made her fortune by developing and marketing a line of cosmetics and hair care products for black women through the business she founded, Madam C. J. Walker Manufacturing Company. At the time of her death, she had helped create the role of the 20th Century, self-made American businesswoman; established herself as a pioneer of the modern black haircare and cosmetics industry; and set standards in the African American community for corporate and community giving. Learn more about her legacy at madamcjwalker.com/about.

Two (2) scholarships, in the amount of $5,000 USD each (sponsored by Mary Kay), will be awarded to two (2) under-represented minority (Black/Brown/African American, Native/American Indian/Indigenous Peoples, or Hispanic/Latin American) applicants of any gender identity pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree in chemical, physical, medical, pharmaceutical, biological, or related STEM disciplines relative to the cosmetics and personal care industry.

Scholarship awardees will be invited to be recognized and accept a ceremonial scholarship check at the SCC Awards Breakfast on Friday, December 13th in Los Angeles. In addition to the scholarship, SCC will provide each awardee: a complimentary Full Access Registration to attend the SCC 78th Annual Meeting & Showcase in Los Angeles, CA, December 11-13, 2024; a $350 travel voucher; two (2) nights complimentary accommodation at the host hotel; and a complimentary student poster at the Showcase, where they are eligible to win additional prizes in the student poster competition.
